Telmarc Gardens, a NJ Licensed Nursery, was founded in 1990 and has been propagating, hybridizing, and breeding daylilies since 1985. Dr. McGarty has studied and has been certified at the New York Botanical Gardens, in New York and has received Certificates from the NYBG in Botany and Horticulture. Telmarc has commenced on a breeding program that is seeking to establish the best in both Diploid and Tetraploid daylilies along with crossings on both species and early introductions. The Garden has many of the early Stout introductions which it is continuing to cross with the more recent introductions for maximum hardiness. Plants will be sold based upon their availability at the time of request. Telmarc Gardens makes no guarantee of availability of any plant.

Plants are priced at $15.00 per plant bundle plus shipping and handling

Introductions

There will be no introductions in this catalog this year. We had a severe set of deer attacks a couple of years ago as well as a fungal attack on the remaining seeds. This resulted in a very low yield and thus we wanted to be certain that we had a good set of introductions before we entered them here,

We have set out over 4000 seedlings from 2009 crosses as well as a 1000 from 2004-2008 which we will evaluate this season.

General Information

Terms of the Sale

Telmarc Gardens makes reasonable attempts to provide the highest quality daylily. It picks healthy plants and ships them in what we believe is the fastest possible way. If you are dissatisfied with any plant upon receipt, return it before it is planted and we will return your price.

Not all plants are available when requested.

Packaging and Postage is $8.00 for the first five plants, and $0.75 for each additional plant.

Telmarc assumes no responsibility for the plant after delivery and planting. Plants will be shipped from June 1 until September 15. Mail and Phone Orders taken. Telmarc is a Licensed and Inspected NJ Nursery. NJ Residents please add 7% sales tax.
