Telmarc Gardens, a NJ Licensed Nursery, was founded in 1990 and has been propagating, hybridizing, and breeding daylilies since 1985. Dr. McGarty has studied and has been certified at the New York Botanical Gardens, in New York and has received Certificates from the NYBG in Botany and Horticulture. Telmarc has commenced on a breeding program that is seeking to establish the best in both Diploid and Tetraploid daylilies along with crossings on both species and early introductions. The Garden has many of the early Stout introductions which it is continuing to cross with the more recent introductions for maximum hardiness. Plants will be sold based upon their availability at the time of request. Telmarc Gardens makes no guarantee of availability of any plant.

Plants are priced at $15.00 per plant bundle, two scapes, plus shipping and handling
